

LEADER LAB

Conference Details

The Kansas FFA Leader Lab Conference has much to offer all members.

During Leader Lab, members have an opportunity to network with others from across the state and go through workshops with professional facilitators on important topics such as goal setting, time management, and communication.

Who Can Attend: All Kansas FFA members are welcome to participate in either portion of the conference.

A maximum number of students will be allowed to attend each conference day. Registration is on a first-come, first-serve basis.

What: 2026 Leader Lab & Stand and Deliver conferences will be presented by YourNextSpeakers, Inc. – Rhett Laubach

When: Thursday, March 12 – Hays OR Friday, March 13 – Emporia

- Registration begins each day at 8:15 a.m.
- Opening Session begins at 9:00 a.m.
- Conference ends at approximately 3:30 p.m.

Where: Thursday, March 12 – Memorial Union, Fort Hays State University, Hays OR Friday, March 13 – Lyon County History Center & Museum, Emporia

Meals: Students will be given a break to grab a fast-food lunch or their choosing.

Dress: FFA Official Dress

Registration Fee: $35.00 - Members

Note: Thanks to sponsorship from the CHS Foundation, we are able to subsidize this conference. The registration fee includes fees charged by YourNextSpeaker, as well as the conference room and equipment fees, materials, supplies, and costs associated with conducting the conference.

Registration must be submitted online through Formstack by March 6!

Complete the online registration form and send payment to:
Kansas FFA Association, 110 Umberger Hall, 1612 Claflin Road, Manhattan KS 66506

